

Department of Environmental Health
 Wednesday Seminar Series
 Autumn Quarter 2009
 10:00 A.M., Kettering Lab, Kehoe Auditorium

Date	Presenter	Affiliation	Title / Topic
09/23/09	NOVA Video	(Discussion groups with various DEH faculty at 11:00 am)	Ghost in Your Genes
09/30/09	Dr. Jerrold Heindel	Scientific Program Administrator NIEHS	The developmental origins of disease: Environmental Exposures and Epigenetic Mechanisms
10/07/09	Dr. Rebecca Simmons	University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine Professor of Pediatrics	Developmental Origins of Type 2 Diabetes
10/14/09	Dr. Hong-Sheng Wang	UC Dept of Pharmacology and Cell Biology Assistant Professor	Bisphenol A Promotes Arrhythmogenesis in the Female Heart via Estrogen Receptor β
10/21/09	Dr. Cheryl Dyer	Northern Arizona University Dept of Biological Sciences Professor	Uranium is an endocrine disrupting compound in vivo and in vitro
10/28/09	Dr. Susan Teitelbaum	Mt. Sinai School of Medicine Associate Professor	Endocrine Disrupting Chemicals in Children: Exposure Sources and Pubertal Maturation
11/04/09	Dr. Susan M. Pinney	UC Dept. of Environmental Health Associate Professor	Perfluorooctanoic Acid and Breast Development in Young Girls
11/11/09		VETERANS' HOLIDAY
11/18/09	Dr. Alvaro Puga	UC Dept. of Environmental Health Professor	Epigenetic regulation of aryl hydrocarbon receptor function
11/25/09		Note: day before Thanksgiving Holiday
12/02/09	Dr. Stephen Benoit	UC Dept of Psychiatry Assistant Professor	Effects of dietary fats on CNS function